

IS LATIN AMERICA READY FOR ARTICLE 6?

Status of climate negotiations, country readiness and pilot activities

Radisson Victoria Plaza Montevideo - Room Gaugin

TUESDAY 21st August 2018

15:30 – 16:30

As the rules of Article 6 are scheduled to be concluded at COP24 in December 2018 and many Latin American NDCs state the intention of using market mechanisms for achieving NDC goals, the status of existing pilot activities and Article 6 readiness of Latin America are discussed.

MARLEN GOERNER

Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit GmbH, GIZ

Introduction

IGOR SHISHLOV

Perspectives Climate Group GmbH

Moderation and review of lessons learned from the Kyoto Protocol for Art. 6

JULIO CORDANO

Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Chile

Art. 6 negotiation status and ITMO pilot project
with Canada

JUAN PEDRO SEARLE

Ministry of Energy of Chile

PMR work in Chile and Art. 6 readiness in the country

CHRISTIAN PATRICKSON

StratCarbon Ltd., Confederation of Production and Commerce (CPC)

Private sector views on Art. 6

The presentations, in Spanish language, will be followed by an open discussion with the audience.